

Rudolph Joins Crowd Riding On MTA Bus

"Rudolph The Red-Nosed Bus" has arrived in town for his Christmas season road tour.

The gaily-decorated mobile reindeer will spread good cheer during the holiday season on three MTA lines serving the South Bay.

The first reindeer to be automated, "Rudolph" was christened at ceremonies at South Bay Shopping Center.

The mobile reindeer arrived for the occasion with his nose freshly redened, his antlers clipped and his coat polished.

"Rudolph" will greet young and old during the holiday season on the MTA's Redondo Beach - Crenshaw Line 101, the Aviation Boulevard-El Nido Line 102 and the Inglewood Avenue-Prairie Line 104.

"His" exact schedule may be obtained by telephoning the MTA at Osborne 5-4461 or Richmond 7-4455.

Lemon or Lime Highlight Fashion

Order a pale float of lemon or lime and look delicious at holiday parties.

Drifting dresses of cool green or yellow will make news for the teen-age girl, predicts the December Seventeen. Fabrics include silk surah, silk chiffon, moire, shantung, satin and brocade.

Silhouettes accent fitted bodices and shaped or floating skirts. Sleevelessness and shoestring straps predominate, with a smattering of new little boleros that flutter from boat necks.

Paisley mists over on an utterly simple little dress of silk surah. Printed silk chiffon interprets a big new trend, a lifted bodice line, STEVE ALLEN discovers everybody's a critic when he pauses for small talk with Rancho the Porpoise at Pacific Ocean Park during taping of the "New Steve Allen Show." The hilarious result of the conversation will be seen 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. tonight over KABC-TV, Channel 7.

Groups Present Music, Drama Yule Pageant

Glee clubs and drama group of Bishop Montgomery High School will present their fifth annual Christmas pageant Friday through Sunday in the school library.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Students will present the program under direction of Sister Rita Francis, C.S.J.

Different periods in music will be covered by the Girls' Glee Club. Two songs will be the 16th century lullaby, "Coventry Carol," and "Christmas Was Meant for Children."

The drama group will present the play, "Venite Adoremus," which tells the story of change in the lives of people of Bethlehem from the Roman soldier period to the birth of Christ.

WINTER ASSET

You'd have to rate the Cyclamen as one of winter's most wonderful assets. During the coolest, wettest months, it pushes up one bloom stock after another in seemingly endless show of color.

CHRYSANTHEMUMS

There isn't a month in the year when nurseries don't offer hot-house Chrysanthemums in full bloom. But there isn't a better month to buy these beauties than November. The Chrysanthemum's "natural" season is fall and its colors are mostly those of autumn, making it ideal for seasonal decor in the house or out of it. Sink the pots in garden bare spots, place them on the deck or use them for table decoration inside.

which is also seen in the high-rise bodice of an airy silk chiffon and the empire midriff of a shaped-skirt dress.
